

EDUARDO D. DEL ROSARIO

- Chairperson, Housing and Urban Development Coordinating Council (July 2017- December 2019)
- Administrator, Office of the Civil Defense (Feb 2013- May 2014)
- Executive Director, National Disaster Risk Reduction and Management Council (2013-2014)
- General Officer-In-Charge, Southern Luzon Command Commander, 2nd Infantry Division of the Philippine Army

Sec. Eduardo Del Rosario was appointed as the first Secretary of the Department of Human Settlements and Urban Development (DHSUD) in December 2019. Previously he was appointed Chairman of the Housing and Urban Development Coordinating Council (HUDCC) on July 12, 2017.

Prior to becoming HUDCC Chair, he was Undersecretary for Civil, Veterans and Retiree Affairs. His appointment as Undersecretary of the Department of National Defense was signed by the President of the Philippines on June 30, 2016.

He brought his significant experiences gained from serving as the General Officer-in-Charge of the Southern Luzon Command; Commander of the 2nd Infantry Division of the Philippine Army; Civil Relations Service; 803rd and 1003rd Infantry Brigades; Joint AFP Special Operations Group; Task Force Davao; Civil Affairs Group, Philippine Army; and the 73rd Infantry Battalion.

Sec. Del Rosario is also a retired Major General in the Armed Forces of the Philippines (AFP) having served the military for almost 37 years until his compulsory retirement in November 2012.

After graduating from the Philippine Military Academy in February 1980, Secretary del Rosario served in both field and staff duties and had undertaken professional and specialization courses in Scout Ranger Operations, Airborne, Field Artillery, Counter Terrorism, and Command General Staff Courses held locally and abroad. He likewise holds a Master's Degree in Public Administration from the Philippine Christian University.